Role: Key Person

Multi-functional Neuroprosthetic System for Restoration of Motor Function

This project is to develop a networked neuroprosthetic system that is capable of restoring multiple functions for individuals with spinal cord injury. The functions to be restored include cough, grasp, stable wheelchair seating, rolling over in bed, and bladder function.

Craig H. Neilsen Foundation (Peckham – PI)

Active dates: 7/01/10 – 7/01/13 $124,940 annual

Role: Co-Principle Investigator

The overall goal of this project is to provide functional independence of the upper extremity for individuals with cervical level spinal cord injury (SCI) through the implementation of implanted neuroprosthetic systems. The implanted functional electrical stimulation (FES) neuroprosthesis will provide individuals who have sustained C5 and C6 injuries with control of grasp and release, forearm pronation, and elbow extension by electrical stimulation of their paralyzed muscles.

Prosthetic Arm Control Device for Amputees

Role: Investigator (subcontract from Ardiem, Inc.) Active dates: 3/2007 – 9/2013

Description: The goals of this project are to develop an advanced control system for a myoelectric arm prosthesis that is based on (1) implanted EMG recordings, (2) a wireless telemetry link to an external controller located with the prosthetic arm, and (3) sensory feedback delivered through peripheral nerve cuff electrodes based on sensor measurements from the prosthetic limb.
