

Step 9: Dress Code for Onsite Program

In the class room, you may wear casual business attire, except you may NOT wear the following:

- Jeans
- Sweats
- Capris
- Leggings
- Shorts
- Skimpy tops
- Torn or ragged clothes
- Flip Flops

For onsite clinicals at Cleveland Clinic, you are required to wear white nurses uniform scrubs and shoes or if you are in homecare, then the uniform of the Visiting Nurse Agency. All students are required to wear a white lab coat or jacket (long or short). Artificial fingernails, tattoos and body piercing are NOT permitted. On your first day of class, you will have access to the online student handbook which contains the entire Cleveland Clinic Dress Code Policy #213 and Personal Appearance Policy #536.

A Cleveland Clinic student identification badge will be issued on the first day of class. It must be worn above the waist and visible at all times during class as well as clinicals.

For offsite clinicals, check with your preceptor regarding dress code requirements.
