

Hillcrest Hospital PGY-1 Resident 2006-2007

G. Elliot Cook, PharmD, BCPS

Current Position:

- > Assistant Professor, LECOM School of Pharmacy, Erie, PA
- > PGY-1 Residency Director, LECOM/Millcreek Hospital

Contact Information:

- > Email: ecook@lecom.edu
- > Phone: 814-860-5113

Education:

- > PGY-1 Pharmacy Practice Residency 2007, Hillcrest Hospital, Mayfield Heights, OH
- > Doctor of Pharmacy 2006, LECOM School of Pharmacy, Erie, PA

Biographical Sketch:

> Dr. Cook graduated from LECOM School of Pharmacy in 2006, a pharmacy practice residency in 2007, and has been a Board Certified Pharmacotherapy Specialist since 2008. He is currently licensed to practice pharmacy by the Pennsylvania and Ohio State Boards of Pharmacy. His current practice site is at Millcreek Community Hospital where he is a Clinical Pharmacist with an internal medicine service. Dr. Cook lectures in various courses at LECOM School of Pharmacy including Drug Information and Research Methods and Pharmacoepidemiology. Dr. Cook is Director of the LECOM / MCH PGY1 Pharmacy Residency Program, a member of the P&T Committee at MCH, a member of the admissions committee for LECOM School of Pharmacy, and a member of several professional pharmacy organizations both at the local and national level.

Publications:

- > Cook GE. Missing published and unpublished data in guidelines. BMJ 2010;340:c1337.
- > Cook GE, Sukkari SR, Sasich LD. An additional source of bias in antidepressant and other trials. Pharmacotherapy 2010;30(3):117e-8e.
- > Cook GE, Sasich LD, Sukkari SR. Letter to the Editor: FDA Drug Information That Never Reaches Clinicians. N Engl J Med 2010;11(6):561-3.
- > Cook GE, Sasich LD, Sukkari SR. DIONYSOS study comparing dronedarone with amiodarone. BMJ 2010;240:c285.
- > Sasich LD, Sukkari SR, Cook GE, Tuttle DA. The importance of FDA approval packages and briefing documents in pharmacy education. Am J Pharm Educ 2009;73(7) Article 126.
- > Kahaleh A, Cook GE. Pharmacy students providing patient medication discharge counseling in Pennsylvania. US Pharm 2009;34(8):49-57.
- > Minor PD, Cook GE. Student pharmacists: don't forget the product labeling. J Am Pharm Assoc 2008 Nov-Dec;48(6):696,700.