Stay Involved and Informed

In addition to workshops, Simulation and Advanced Skills Center (SASC) hosts ongoing interprofessional meetings dedicated to simulation-based education.

- Grand Rounds

SASC Grand Rounds aims to promote lifelong learning in simulation-based education through visiting speakers from the greater simulation community presenting on current topics.

- Journal Club

SASC Journal Club reviews and promotes thoughtful discussion of important articles in the field of healthcare simulation.

If you are interested in Grand Rounds or the Journal Club, RSVP to Erin Higgins, MD, at higgine@ccf.org. CME/CEU credit is available.

*Other formal facilitator training may be considered. For approval, please contact simulationctr@ccf.org.
