

The APRN/PA Transition To Practice (TTP) program is designed to refine the skills and knowledge of the new graduates and experienced APRN/PA changing specialty practice areas. The TTP program is a supplement to your department specific onboarding, with the exception of Emergency Medicine where it is the primary process for new hires.

Transition To Practice Program

Director Outpatient Primary Care Track

Anne Vanderbilt, MSN, APRN
Director of Advanced Practice Nursing
Nursing Institute

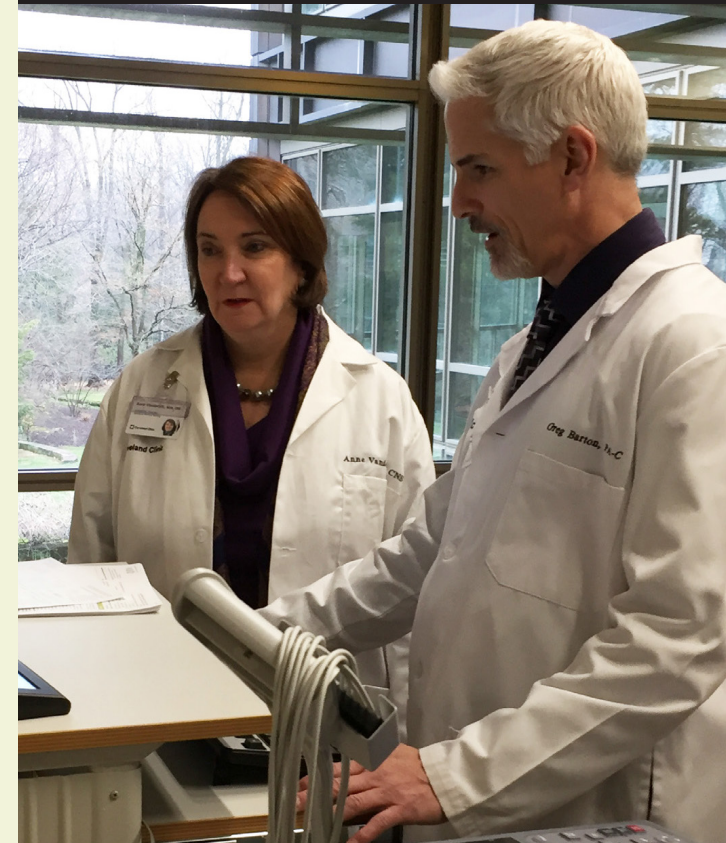

Director Inpatient Tracks; Critical Care, Hospital Medicine and Perioperative Medicine

Debra Kangisser, PA-C
Director of Education PA Services
Chief of Staff Division

Director Emergency Medicine Track

Lynn Pagliaccio RN, MPAS PA-C
PA/APRN Director
Emergency Services Institute

For further information
send inquiries to: TTP@ccf.org

Transition To Practice APRN and PA

Every life deserves world class care.

22-OPR-2865966

TRANSITION TO PRACTICE

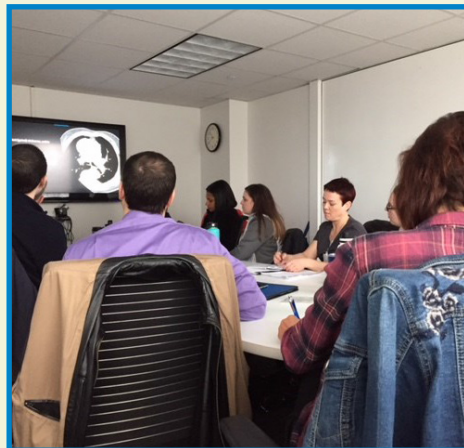

- Feedback and Review
- Didactic and Learning Modules
- Specialty Rotations
- Procedure/Sims Lab

DIDACTICS

Faculty led and specialty designed best practice didactic sessions, delivered in an interactive learning environment.

SPECIALTY ROTATIONS

Observation based learning time with multidisciplinary and interprofessional disciplines.

BLENDED LEARNING

SIMULATION

State of the art learning environment allows for high definition training and feedback encourages reflection and enhances critical thinking skills.

PROCEDURE LABS

Hands on instruction for a variety of procedures (i.e. suturing, intubation, ultrasound guided line placement).

ENHANCED SKILLS

- Faculty Development
- IDP
- Orientation
- Professional Topics

FACULTY LED

Practice-based learning with experienced staff dedicated to your training and success

ONLINE LEARNING

Interactive online learning modules through Cleveland Clinic MyLearning platform.