You are invited to participate in dynamic conversations about art through the medium of high definition videoconferencing – here at Cleveland Clinic!

Join in... a live program from presenters at the Cleveland Museum of Art.

See... magnificent works of art close-up on the big screen.

Enjoy... beauty and inspiration from one of the world's great art collections.

It's fun. It's live. It’s interactive, so you can ask any question you like. Experience it all from a comfortable seat in a specially equipped conference room on the third floor of Cleveland Clinic's state-of-the-art Miller Family Pavilion.

From Medieval times to the Modern Age, from Rembrandt to Picasso, these talks are a great way to explore civilizations, artistic movements and styles through the world-renowned Cleveland Museum of Art Collection.

Photos Courtesy: The Cleveland Museum of Art