

You are Invited!

The Cleveland Museum of Art
Distance Learning Program at Cleveland Clinic.
For Patients and Families.

Please join us!

Where:

J3-105 conference room/near J35 desk

Time: 2 PM, the first and third Tuesday of each month.

For more information contact:

Arts & Medicine Institute at 216.297.8330, or ask your nurse

Supported by a generous gift from Agnes Gund to the Arts and Medicine Institute.

You are invited to participate in dynamic conversations about art through the medium of high definition videoconferencing – here at Cleveland Clinic!

Join in... a live program from presenters at the Cleveland Museum of Art.

See... magnificent works of art close-up on the big screen.

Enjoy... beauty and inspiration from one of the world's great art collections.

It's fun. It's live. It's interactive, so you can ask any question you like. Experience it all from a comfortable seat in a specially equipped conference room on the third floor of Cleveland Clinic's state-of-the-art Miller Family Pavilion.

From Medieval times to the Modern Age, from Rembrandt to Picasso, these talks are a great way to explore civilizations, artistic movements and styles through the world-renowned Cleveland Museum of Art Collection.