Cleveland Clinic Internal Medicine Residency Program

Primary Care Track

4+1: “X and Y” weeks

---

Primary Care Track Highlights:
- Work with distinguished faculty and leaders in general internal medicine (GIM) in friendly environment
- First choice of your continuity clinic site
- Opportunity for unique outpatient experiences to better equip residents wanting to go directly into practice
- Opportunity to focus on quality improvement, medical education, research, and/or leadership to better equip residents wanting to go into academics

10 weeks as a PGY-1
- Ambulatory Rotations
- Dedicated primary care block (PCB) didactics

15 weeks as PGY-2/PGY-3
- Ambulatory Rotations
- Additional GIM clinic time for breadth of experience
- Dedicated PCB didactics

---

PCB Didactics Include:
- Heart Failure
- Population Health
- Accountable Care Organizations
- Soft Tissue Infections/Cellulitis
- Health Disparities/Equity
- Shared Medical Appointments
- Shoulder and Knee Pain
- Contraception
- LGBT Health
- Telemedicine
- Resident led Journal Club
- And many more!

---

Some of our Ambulatory Rotations for during “X” week include:
- Bariatric Medicine
- Dermatology
- Sports Medicine
- ENT
- Women’s Health/Gynecology
- Vascular Medicine
- Endocrine/Diabetes Clinic
- Pulmonary
- Cardiology
- HIV Clinic
- Geriatric Medicine
- Ophthalmology
- Urology
- Smoking Cessation
- Transgender Medicine

---

Sample Schedules

| AM | Diabetes | Pituitary | Adrenal | PCB Didactics | Calcium/Parathyroid |
| PM | Thyroid | Diabetes | Diabetes | Thyroid | Adrenal |

| AM | Didactics | Clinic | QI/Admin | PCB Didactics | Clinic |
| PM | Clinic | Didactics | Clinic | Clinic | Subspecialty |

Contacts: Stacey Jolly, MD (jollys@ccf.org), and Kelly Paschke, MD (Paschkk@ccf.org)