

The Stanley Shalom Zielony Institute
For Nursing Excellence

JOHN T. BAKER, DNP, MBA, RN, NEA-BC

PUBLICATIONS

Hartman, J. H., Baker, J., Bena, J. F., Morrison, S. L., & Albert, N. M. (2018). Pediatric vascular access peripheral IV algorithm success rate. Journal of Pediatric Nursing, 39, 1-6.
doi:10.1016/J.PEDN.2017.12.002.

Mash, C., Baker, J.T., Foster, C., Goldfarb, J., (2011, June). Improved infection control compliance using isolation signs that incorporate standardized colors, visual cues, and sequenced instructions. American Journal of Infection Control, Vol 9, No 5 p. 445-447.

Baker, J.T., Gagliano, G.C., Goldfarb, J. (2009, June). A sign of the times: Compliance with isolation precautions in a children's hospital. Poster session presented at the annual APIC meeting, Ft. Lauderdale, FL.

PRESENTATIONS

"To poke or not to poke, that is the question: A children's hospital initiative to decrease vascular access attempts," at the Cleveland Clinic Patient Experience Summit; Cleveland, OH; May 2014.

"Protecting children: Parents attitudes about influenza vaccine," and "A sign of the times: Compliance with isolation precautions in a children's hospital," at the Association for Professionals in Infection Control and Epidemiology (APIC) Annual Meeting, Ft. Lauderdale, FL; June 2009. [poster presentation]

