

Nathan Hurle Award for Continuous Improvement in Nursing Enterprise Award

- Purpose: Presented in recognition of excellence in the pursuit of process improvement and innovation while demonstrating the key attributes of integrity, respect, teamwork and accountability.
- Eligibility: Any nursing team or individual caregiver who has been in the Cleveland Clinic's Nursing Institute for at least 1 year. Individual nominee must have achieved "commendable" or higher on their last annual performance review and have no corrective action in the last two years. Past NEA honorees are eligible in the same award category after 10 years and in other award categories after 5 years.
- Process: Any caregiver, patient or visitor may nominate. Submissions will be scored during a double-blind review based on evidence provided by completion of the nomination questions. Honorees will be announced by the end of Nurses Week.
- Instructions: Please DO NOT use the nominee's individual or team name when writing details but rather address as the NOMINEE. Answer each question completely, providing specific examples or descriptions as requested, including patient and other caregiver comments. When possible, provide quantitative data to support examples.
1. Describe and provide an example of how the nominated team/individual has demonstrated excellence in continuous improvement in Nursing and fostered a culture of improvement at Cleveland Clinic.
 2. Describe how the nominated team/individual has demonstrated the key attributes of integrity, respect, teamwork and accountability during the improvement process.
 3. Describe how clinical, operational or caregiver engagement outcomes have been positively impacted by the continuous improvement efforts of the nominated team/individual.
