Compassion and Valuing Every Person
5th Annual event in honor of Dr. Anthony Thomas, Jr
Hosted by Center for Bioethics

Please share your experience in healthcare regarding actions of compassion or actions that demonstrate the valuing of a person. We want to learn from you about the wisdom and power of compassionate human interactions that allow flourishing, amplify voices who have been less seen, and give rise to unexpected kindnesses. Further background about previous event information in this series can be viewed at [\[http://www.clevelandclinic.org/anthonythomas\]](http://www.clevelandclinic.org/anthonythomas)

Submission Categories:

1. Story, Reflection or Testimonial ($250)
2. Short Poem ($100)
3. Long Poem ($250)
4. Visual Art Presentation ($250)

We will award up to 4 prizes and invite winners to present their submission at the annual event on October 5th at 5:30pm. Please RSVP here. We are excited to announce that Cleveland's renowned poet Wallstreet Wes will be the keynote speaker.

Who is eligible: Patients, Family/Friend of Patient, Cleveland Clinic employees, others who are directly connected with Cleveland Clinic.

Award: In addition to the opportunity to present at the event, selected speakers will be awarded a monetary prize.
